Greg joins Schneider, Smeltz, Ranney & LaFond as an associate in the firm's litigation practice group. He devotes his practice entirely to litigation, and has a wealth of knowledge handling complex commercial, labor and employment, and product liability lawsuits. Greg also has experience handling class action lawsuits and multi-district litigation, as well as landlord-tenant disputes, regulatory actions, and transportation matters. In his free time, Greg serves as a coach for the nationally acclaimed University of Akron School of Law mock trial team.

In the Spring of 2012, Greg served as a Judicial Extern to the Honorable Christopher A. Boyko, United States District Judge, Northern District of Ohio. During his time with Judge Boyko he assisted in drafting Opinions and Orders, researched and wrote recommendations regarding various litigated issues before the Court, and participated in several Court functions.

Prior to being admitted to practice law, Greg worked as an information technology compliance analyst at a Fortune 20 company.

Greg is a member of the Young Lawyers Section of the American Bar Association. He is actively involved with the Defense Research Institute's (DRI) Product Liability Committee, Trial Tactics Committee, and Young Lawyer Committee and is also a monthly contributor to the legislative tracking column, Defense Research Institute, The Voice.
