

ATTORNEY JENNIFER A. SAVAGE JOINS SCHNEIDER, SMELTZ, RANNEY & LAFOND PLL

Cleveland, Ohio, January 15, 2016 -- Schneider, Smeltz, Ranney & LaFond PLL (SSRL) is pleased to announce that Jennifer A. Savage has joined the firm. Her practice will focus on estate planning, business succession planning, and taxation.

Ms. Savage most recently practiced law as Partner of the Tax and Wealth Management section at Walter Haverfield LLP. She advises families on the design of wills, trusts, and other personal planning documents. She also serves as a counselor to individuals and families of high net worth on complex matters regarding retirement and insurance planning, charitable giving, estate and trust administration, and generation skipping taxation.

The firm is proud to have another Fellow in the American College of Trusts and Estates Counsel (ACTEC) join the firm. Jennifer was listed in Best Lawyers® in America in the practice areas of Closely-Held Companies and Family Business Law. She is a member of the Cleveland Metropolitan Bar Association, Estate Planning Institute where she serves as a Program Committee Member. She is an active member in the Estate Planning Council of Cleveland, serving as President in 2014-2015. Since 2012, Savage has also been consistently recognized by the Ohio Super Lawyers publication. Jennifer is a 1987 cum laude graduate of Rice University and earned her J.D. degree from Case Western Reserve University School of Law, cum laude, in 1990.

According to James D. Vail, Managing Partner of SSRL, "We are delighted to have Jennifer join our firm. She brings a wealth of estate planning experience and business savvy to our clients who will value her insight and counsel."
