Schneider Smeltz Spieth Bell LLP Welcomes Associate Attorney Jamie E. McHenry

Cleveland, Ohio, November 21, 2016 – Schneider Smeltz Spieth Bell LLP is pleased to announce that Jamie McHenry joined the firm’s Trust & Estates practice group as an Associate Attorney. McHenry will be using her knowledge and experience to assist clients with tax, estate, charitable giving, probate, and guardianship matters.

McHenry received her J.D. from Cleveland-Marshall College of Law, graduating magna cum laude in 2016. During her graduate career, she served as an Articles Editor for the Journal of Law and Health, and received the CALI Excellence for the future award in the following areas: Legal Writing, Legal Profession, School Law, and Psychiatry and Law. She earned a Bachelor of Science in Paralegal Studies, summa cum laude, in 2012 from the University of Cincinnati, and was awarded the 2012-2013 Outstanding Paralegal Student of the year.

“We think Jamie will be an excellent representative of our firm and we look forward to having her join our talented professionals in the Trust & Estates practice group,” said James D. Vail, Managing Partner.

Schneider Smeltz Spieth Bell LLP was formed when two of Cleveland’s oldest law firms merged in 2016. The law firm specializes in the areas of business law, real estate, litigation, family law, taxation and trusts and estates.
