FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Kimberly E. Stein Becomes Partner at the Law Firm of Schneider Smeltz Spieth Bell LLP

Cleveland, OH—On January 1, 2018 Kimberly E. Stein became Partner at Schneider Smeltz Spieth Bell LLP. According to Managing Partner, James D. Vail, “We are delighted to have Kim become a Partner at the firm. She is a valuable contributor to the firm’s Trusts & Estates and Taxation departments. Her active involvement and leadership with the Estate Planning Council and the Tax Club of Cleveland has afforded their members robust programming and professional development throughout the years. We are proud to call her our Partner and look forward to Kim continuing the firm’s tradition of delivering excellent client service.”

She advises individuals, fiduciaries, family groups, and business and charitable organizations on matters relating to estate and retirement planning; individual, fiduciary, and corporate income and transfer tax matters and controversies; trust and estate administration; and formation, qualification, and ongoing compliance of charitable organizations.

Stein is licensed to practice in Ohio and Florida and is a recognized author on the topics of Federal Tax and Ohio Law updates. Stein graduated from Cornell Law School in 2008 with a concentration in Business Law and Regulation. She received her B.A. from the University of Rochester where she graduated magna cum laude.

Kim joined Schneider Smeltz Spieth Bell LLP when her prior firm, Spieth, Bell, McCurdy & Newell, Co., L.P.A., combined with Schneider, Smeltz, Ranney & LaFond P.L.L. on March 1, 2016, uniting Cleveland’s two oldest law firms. Kim can be reached at kstein@sssb-law.com or at (216) 535-1037.
