Schneider Smeltz Spieth Bell LLP Welcomes our Newest Attorneys

Cleveland, OH—Effective July 16, 2018 Schneider Smeltz Spieth Bell LLP has added three new Attorneys to the firm: Mark M. Mikhaiel, Kyle T. Mordew, and Justin L. Stark. According to Managing Partner, James D. Vail, “We are delighted to have these talented attorneys join our firm. We are excited about the dedication, energy and talent they will bring to our team.”

Mark M. Mikhaiel will work in the Litigation Practice Department. He has extensive experience in commercial litigation, including shareholder, fiduciary and business tort litigation; probate litigation; UCC contract disputes and non-medical professional malpractice matters.

Kyle T. Mordew joins the firm’s Trusts & Estates practice group where he will counsel clients in the areas of estate planning, asset protection planning, probate, estate, and trust administration. He has experience drafting estate a variety of estate planning documents, including pour over wills and revocable living trusts to more nuanced documents like ILITs, charitable trusts, and private foundation documents.

As the newest member of the firm’s Trusts & Estates practice group, Justin L Stark provides estate planning solutions to high net worth individuals and families. Before joining Schneider Smeltz Spieth Bell LLP, Justin worked at one of America’s largest financial institutions where he spearheaded a team of experts in investment management, financial and estate planning, lending and deposit solutions, and fiduciary services for high net worth clients. That background and experience gives Justin a unique perspective that will benefit our clients and his colleagues at the firm.

Schneider Smeltz Spieth Bell LLP is a full-service law firm. With experience dating back to 1867, the firm focuses on delivering excellent client service by providing forward-thinking, creative solutions to complex legal problems. With more than 25 lawyers licensed to practice in five states, Schneider Smeltz Spieth Bell LLP provides its clients with a broad range of services, including business law, real estate, litigation, family law, and taxation.
